

Day 1

20th Century Jewish Chamber Music

CONCERT

$20

Tuesday, February 28, 2017 - 8 p.m.
5th Floor Wimberly Library
Open Seating

KOL NIDRE

Discover musical treasures featuring 20th century Jewish themed chamber music by Prokofiev, Bloch, Bruch, Achron, and others. Enjoy this intimate chamber music recital featuring clarinet, string quartet, and piano. Acclaimed South Florida musicians will perform familiar and rarely heard compositions.

kultur קולטור FESTIVAL

Featuring
KLEZMER COMPANY JAZZ ORCHESTRA
Aaron Kula, Music Director

Day 3

Fiddler on the Roof: In Concert

MAIN EVENT CONCERT

$55, $44, $34, $25

Sunday, March 5, 2017 - 2 p.m.
Carole and Barry Kay
Performing Arts Auditorium

Cover art courtesy Aliya Arts Gallery, Boris Shapiro, artist www.aliyaharts.com/artist/boris-shapiro/

Conducting a full cast and orchestra, Aaron Kula and the Klezmer Company Jazz Orchestra will perform the complete concert version of Fiddler on the Roof. Based on Sholem Aleichem's tales of Tevye and His Daughters, this beloved musical tells the story of Tevye as he faces the dilemma of having to balance his cultural traditions with his daughters' wishes to embrace 20th century ideology.

This year marks KCJO's 20th season at FAU under the artful direction of music director/conductor Aaron Kula with music from FAU Libraries' Music Collection.

Day 4

Hip, Hot, and Heymish

A One Woman Show featuring
Eleanor Reissa

CONCERT

$20

Tuesday, March 7, 2017 - 2 p.m.
5th Floor Wimberly Library
Open Seating

Yiddish Diva Eleanor Reissa will perform her critically acclaimed soulful one woman show in Yiddish and English with pianist Jerry Korman. The program includes passionate folk songs, classic songs from the Yiddish theaters on Second Avenue, and touching expressions of love, piousness and protest. You'll laugh, cry and realize you understand more than you thought! Huffington Post wrote that Ms. Reissa "has a great voice, an expressive delivery, an endearing style and an entrancing stage presence."

Day 2

Jewish Legacy in Song

Second Avenue Jewish Chorale
Coreen Duffy, conductor

CONCERT

$20

Wednesday, March 1, 2017, 2017 - 8 p.m.
5th Floor Wimberly Library
Open Seating

South Florida's Second Avenue Jewish Chorale under the direction of founding artistic director Coreen Duffy will perform contemporary hits and timeless classics that reflect the diversity of Jewish music in song. The concert will feature works in Ladino, Hebrew, Yiddish, and English, including music from the synagogue, Israel, Spain, and the Yiddish theater.

Day 5

The REAL History of American Klezmer

Featuring Peter Sokolow, KlezmrFats

CONCERT

$20

Wednesday, March 8, 2017 - 2 p.m.
5th Floor Wimberly Library
Open Seating

New York City Klezmer pianist Peter Sokolow, also known as KlezmrFats, will offer an entertaining overview of the New York Klezmer scene during the 20th century. He will talk about his years working with famous Klezmer musicians such as the Epstein brothers, Dave Tarras, Ray Musiker, Paul Pincus, and others. Mr. Sokolow will perform music that reflects the history of American Klezmer music during that era.