

Adolph & Rose Levis Jewish Community Center
Phyllis & Harvey Sandler Center
presents

Kultur Festival

Aaron Kula, Artistic Director

A series of musical performances that celebrate
Jewish culture and heritage.

American Jewish New Year in JazzTime

Sunday, September 22, 3:00 pm
Zinman Hall

9901 Donna Klein Blvd., Boca Raton

Featuring vocals by Kunya Rowley and storyteller Caren Schnur Neile. KCJO and guests will perform a soulful mix of cantorial melodies known as 'nusach' and High Holiday melodies for the Jewish New Year, co-mingled with American jazz, Blues, Negro Spirituals and old world Klezmer. Songs will include "Avinu Malkeynu" made popular by singer Barbara Streisand; "Rosh Hashana Swing," "Chassidic Kaddish," "Kol Nidrei Blues" and "Oseh Shalom Salsa," "Boogie Woogie Nigun by the Shlomo Carlbach," and more. This is a concert everyone can enjoy.

VIP Reserved Seats: $40;
General Admission: $30

A Very Jewish Concert on Christmas Day

Wednesday, December 25, 3:00 pm
Zinman Hall

9901 Donna Klein Blvd., Boca Raton

Accordianist and music director Aaron Kula will lead the critically acclaimed nine-member Klezmer Company Jazz Orchestra (KCJO) in a concert filled with entertaining songs, stories and jazzed up arrangements of classic Yiddish, Israeli, and Chassidic melodies. Kula and his band mates play genre bending original arrangements and use a mixture of jazz harmonies and swing rhythms to reimagine Jewish melodies from the band's extensive American Klezmer song book. This concert is for anyone who wants to have a good time, hear great musicians, and rediscover songs with a new twist.

VIP Reserved Seats: $40;
General Admission: $30

Miami Beach Rhumba

Sunday, February 23, 2:00 pm
Levis JCC Sandler Center

21050 95th Avenue S., Boca Raton

KCJO's Latin Jazz Klezmer combines the best of two musical worlds; European Klezmer melodies with Latin America beats including an Afro-Cuban Hora, Klezmer Mambo, a Yiddish Tango, a Klezmerengue, and a Salsa Freilach as well as Yiddish songs from the 1930s and 40s sung with a Latin flair. The concert will end with the famous Miami Beach Rumba by the late Irving Fields. This concert will leave you dancing in the aisles.

VIP Reserved Seats: $40;
General Admission: $30

Series Pricing for all 4 Performances:

VIP: $130 ($150 value);
General Admission: $90 ($110 value)

Jewish Chamber Music Concert

Saturday, March 28, 7:30 pm
Levis JCC Sandler Center

21050 95th Avenue S., Boca Raton

The Amadeus Duo is a new piano and violin ensemble that presents various styles of chamber music. This concert will feature music by Jewish composers including Achron, Bloch, Bernstein, Engel, Gershwin and others. Their most recent accomplishments include 1st prizes at John Oliveira Inaugural String Competition, the Lyric Chamber Music Competition which led to their New York debut in May 2019. The Duo was established in 2018 by violinist Askar Salimdjano and pianist Feruza Dadabaeva while attending Lynn Conservatory of Music.

VIP Reserved Seats: $30;
General Admission: $20